NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Times New Roman, font size 12, 1 line spacing.
Page layout: margins: top 2 cm, bottom 2 cm, left 2 cm, right 2 cm.
Footnotes: Times New Roman, font size 10.
Bibliography: Times New Roman, font size 11.
The English or French abstract will be attached at the end of the article, written in Times New Roman, font size 11. The title of the article will be translated as well.
Address (affiliation), e-mail address will be written at the end of the article.
Title of the article: centered, all capitals, font size 14, bold letters.
Author’s name: right alignment, italic, all capitals, font size 12, no bold, two lines after the title.
Subtitles with one figure: centered, all capitals, font size 11, bold letters.
Subtitles with two figures: 1 Tab, lowercase letters, font size 11, bold letters.

Bibliographic references shall be given in footnotes:
Avram 1997:12.
For more than two authors, use et al.
Works of the same author are ordered in bibliography chronologically, from the oldest to the latest one.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Avram 1997 = Mioara Avram, Anglicismele în limba româna actuală, București, Editura Academiei Române.
Coteanu 1955 = Ion Coteanu, Despre pluralul substantivelor neutre în româneşte, in „Limbă şi literatură” 1, p. 103–117.

For articles published in collective authors that have an editor, the respective volume is to be mentioned separately in the bibliography.
If more works of the same authors published in the same year are quoted, after the year please add a, b, c etc., to identify each work.
For articles written in Romanian, it is obligatory to use the Romanian quotation marks [„”]. For quotes in French, use French quotation marks [« »], and for other languages, use English quotation marks [“ ”].
Examples are given with italic letters, and the translation between [‘‘]: pied ‘leg’.